

We drive semi-trucks over the road, coast to coast. We have the XM Radio. We use it for weather reports and also for traffic reports. It is easy to get reports from the XM. You know where you can get these reports no matter where in the country you are. It is hard to know what station to listen to to get a traffic report on the local stations.